THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night, that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their beloved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n—rescued-land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave!

ALMA MATER

On campus green with tow'rs of marble
Lifting white spires in air,
Oh, Brooklyn is our Alma Mater,
And she is wondrous fair.
Within the gray halls ever lit,
The lamps of learning burn,
And ever on to goals of glory
Young eager spirits yearn.

A loyal band of student comrades
Golden the laughter rings.
The stars above we turn our faces
Soaring on sweeping wings.
Our friendship here is wov'n with learning,
Joy fills all our days
So hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Brooklyn, we sing thy praise.
