Dear Mr. Toch:

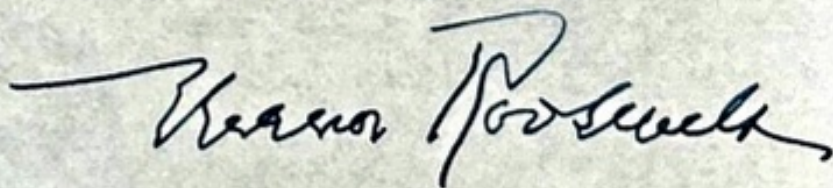

I was glad to get your letter and I will be glad to see you sometime later. At present I am so busy I cannot add anything more.

Letters to me are simply filed alphabetically and not by subject or content and because of limited space and help, letters are usually destroyed if there seems no further reason for keeping them. In any case, I have always refused any requests to go through my correspondence because I feel they are written in good faith. My White House files are in the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library and not open to the public.

My husband's files are in the Library also, and many of them are open to the public.

With many regrets that I cannot be helpful, I am

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Eleanor Roosevelt". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed closing of the letter.
